The Satyendranath Tagore Civil Services Study Centre (SNTCSSC) is an initiative, launched in May 2021 under the auspices of the Government of West Bengal, to provide subsidised coaching for the UPSC Civil Services Examination. The centre has been named after the first Indian to become ICS, Shri Satyendranath Tagore. It is a matter of great privilege for us that SNTCSSC chose our college, i.e. Suri Vidyasagar College as a study centre on 02/09/2022. A total of 26 study centres were opened on that very day and Suri Vidyasagar College was one of them. On 02/09/2022 at 3 p.m., classes at 26 centres were virtually inaugurated by the Chief Secretary to the Chief Minister of West Bengal. Then at 3.40 p.m. Khan Study Group (KSG) conducted an orientation session live on their portal. The programme was attended by the honourable District Magistrate of Birbhum, the Principal of Suri Vidyasagar College, teachers and student-aspirants. Thus Suri Vidyasagar College, in the capacity of being a prominent study centre of SNTCSSC in the district, paved the way for the underprivileged who actually wanted to be civil servants but did not have access to the private coaching centres.
