15 Bengal Battalion NCC Organizes Plog Run for Jallianwala Bagh Remembrance Day

Suri, West Bengal – April 13, 2021

To commemorate Jallianwala Bagh Remembrance Day, the 15 Bengal Battalion NCC based in Suri, West Bengal, organized a plog run on April 13, 2021. The plog run combined jogging or running with plastic waste collection, promoting both fitness and environmental awareness.

This event served as a tribute to the martyrs of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre, which took place on April 13, 1919, in Amritsar, India. The plog run symbolized cleansing the memory of the horrific event while keeping the surrounding environment clean.

The NCC cadets actively participated in the plog run, collecting plastic waste along their designated route within the Birbhum district. This initiative not only honored the martyrs but also instilled a sense of civic responsibility in the cadets.

The plog run organized by the 15 Bengal Battalion NCC served as a fitting tribute to the Jallianwala Bagh martyrs while promoting a clean environment.

Raksha Bandhan

Across India, Raksha Bandhan, a cherished festival celebrating the bond between siblings, is observed with immense joy. For NCC cadets, this occasion carries even deeper meaning. It reinforces the core values – duty, protection, and solidarity – that are instilled throughout their training.

While traditionally sisters tie rakhis on their brothers' wrists, NCC cadets might not have that opportunity. However, the spirit of Raksha Bandhan resonates strongly within the corps.

Every Raksha Bandhan, NCC cadets participate in various ceremonies that capture the festival's essence. These activities emphasize the importance of safeguarding the nation, just as brothers traditionally vow to protect their sisters. The camaraderie fostered within the NCC unit mirrors the sibling bond celebrated during Raksha Bandhan.

Republic Day Parade on 26th January

Marching in the Republic Day Parade is a pinnacle experience for NCC (National Cadet Corps) cadets across India. Every year, on January 26th, meticulously selected cadets from all corners of the country converge on Rajpath in New Delhi to participate in this prestigious event.

Their crisp movements and unwavering focus on the parade ground are a testament to the rigorous training and discipline instilled by the NCC program. This participation serves as a powerful symbol – it showcases the commitment and dedication of young Indians towards national service.

Beyond the marching display, NCC cadets also contribute to the vibrant cultural tapestry of the Republic Day Parade. Their presentations highlight India's rich diversity and the unifying spirit that binds the nation together.

For the cadets themselves, marching in the parade is a moment of immense pride and patriotism. It signifies their readiness to serve the country and leaves a lasting memory for them and the nation as a whole.

It's important to note that while the national parade takes place in Delhi, NCC units across districts like D.M. Birbhum might also organize local parades on Republic Day, fostering the spirit of national service within their communities.

This rewrite combines the strengths of both passages, clarifies the national and local levels of participation, and emphasizes the core themes of discipline, national service, and youth empowerment.
