Section II: Metric and Criterion Analysis

Observations (Strengths and/or Weaknesses) on each qualitative metrics of the key Indicator under the respective criterion (This will be a qualitative analysis of descriptive nature aimed at critical analysis presenting strength and weakness of HEI under each criteria)

Criterion1 - Curricular Aspects (Key Indicator and Qualitative Metrics(QIM) in Criterion1)
1.1	Curricular Planning and Implementation
1.1.1 QIM	The Institution ensures effective curriculum planning and delivery through a well-planned and documented process including Academic calendar and conduct of continuous internal Assessment The mission of the college is to provide a transformative education that fosters academic excellence with this mission college is working , college has 21 academic subjects of which 18 offer Honours courses and 3 General Courses . The college also offers 4 PG courses of the DDE, Bardhaman University. The college houses a NSOU Study Centre from January 1998. Besides these, the college has entered into faculty exchange with other similar institutions and 20 in number MoU have been signed. The college encourages self development of all faculty members by allowing them to pursue PhD programs and other such courses regularly. Refresher courses, orientation programmes and attending and presenting papers in conferences and seminars is encouraged. Besides various faculty members are part of the Board of Studies and other such bodies of various colleges and University. The college with the help of the IQAC encourages all departments to develop teaching plans and implement them rigourously. For this an Academic Calendar is published at the beginning of each academic session providing a roadmap for expected activities. The Covid-19 crisis saw alternative and online modes of teaching such as use of Google classroom, Google meet, supply of recorded audio lectures and study material in PDF form. Field studies, excursions, educational tours, village surveys etc are encouraged. Innovative teaching learning is encouraged through student seminars, science exhibition, quiz etc. The college has a feedback system by which learners are encouraged to provide their opinion regarding modes and methods of study and other related issues.
1.3	Curriculum Enrichment
1.3.1 QIM	Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability in transacting the Curriculum The mission of the college is to provide a transformative education that fosters academic excellence, critical thinking, and creativity with this mission college is trying to include ethics and human values in their syllabus. The college also observed some attention towards cultural, sports, and social services events, fostering overall student development. The Drama Club organises a drama festival annually in which several departments and faculty members and other staff members take active part . Outreach programs and community engagement initiatives are practised mainly through NSS and NCC depts that organise blood donation camps, rallies on health, hygiene and social issues, tree plantation drives etc. The three NSS units have adopted nearby villages. The Institute has defined program outcomes and course outcomes for each program and course for which direct and indirect methodologies are utilised to assess the outcome. The college observes various important days like Anti tobacco day, Women's Day, Teachers Day, Human Rights Day, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan campaign etc. Clubs such as electoral literacy club, drama club, red ribbon club etc strive to inspire students to shine in their preferred fields of activity. The college organises the annual sports and takes part in district as well as university level sports. The employability of its students is not addressed at its expected level.

Qualitative analysis of Criterion 1

The college strives to provide quality education which not only allows the students to achieve academic excellence but also make them socially responsible. The college website provides relevant up to date information regarding admission criteria, admission process, departmental information, rules and regulations, study material and other extension services. During the last 5 years on an average of 1800 students/year have been admitted of which a significant section belonged to SC, ST, OBC and PwD categories The college follows a academic calendar and syllabus distribution being made known to students. Upon admission, students are placed under a mentor who looks after their academic progress and provides counselling. The college is yet to utilise various innovative teaching and learning methods and ICT tools to enhance the learning experience for the students. Limited number of faculty development MoUs have been entered into with similar institutions for faculty exchange and specialised lectures.

Criterion2 - Teaching-learning and Evaluation (Key Indicator and Qualitative Metrics(QIM) in Criterion2)

2.3 Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 QIM Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences and teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning process

Periodic internal assessments are also taken in form of class tests, viva voce, seminar, home assignments etc. The evaluation system is honest, transparent, time bound and efficient. The college placement cell nominally functions in the college. The college has ICT based class rooms in limited locations. The teaching-learning methods used at Suri Vidyasagar College (SVC) are traditional that needs improvement. Teachers use Lectures, Tutorials, Chalk-and-Talk Method, limited Experiential Learning, Assignment and Project-based Learning on the one hand; Study Tours, Excursions, Students' Seminar, Science Exhibition etc. are some of the student-centric learning activities. Teachers encourage students' participation in extracurricular activities like quiz competition, debate, extempore speech and Youth Parliament Competition (YPC). Teachers often use PowerPoint Presentations and recommend students to do so as well. The college publishes a magazine regularly; along with this, departmental wall magazines help nurture the creative urge of the students. The College conducts add-on courses on drama, aquarium management and yoga. During the pandemic period, the needs of the students were particularly taken care of through online classes, doubt-clearing classes, special classes and personal phone calls. Apart from the academic issues, teachers in the college also care the nonacademic and personal problems of the students.

2.5 Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 QIM Mechanism of internal/ external assessment is transparent and the grievance redressal system is time- bound and efficient

Suri Vidyasagar College emphasizes continuous assessment of students' progress. While most evaluation methods adhere to university guidelines. Before the CBCS system in 2017, the college implemented the Base Level Test (BLT) to gauge new students' standards for personalized teaching.

Students are informed about their syllabus, question patterns, marks distribution, and examination mechanisms through induction meetings, mentor-mentee interactions, and orientation classes. The college publishes an academic calendar aligned with the university's, detailing tentative dates for internal tests, class tests, special classes, and tutorials. Teachers encourage regular attendance. Interactions between the Principal, Teachers, IQAC, and academic sub-committees are there to address students' issues. Parent-Teacher Meetings (PTM) are also done.

	The college's examination cell conducts university exams and upholds university rules. Internal assessment methods, including class tests, surprise tests, MCQs, analytical tests, home assignments, presentations, projects with viva, and others, ensure a system in place. Student grievances, including exam-related concerns, are handled by the Grievance Redressal Cell and RTI Cell.
2.6	Student Performance and Learning Outcomes
2.6.1 QIM	Programme Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (COs) for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website Suri Vidyasagar College develops Program Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (COs) for its departments while adhering to the syllabi framed by the affiliating university. POs focus on students' long-term achievements in domain knowledge, skill development, and grades, while COs emphasize their short-term progress. These closely related indicators follow university regulations. To ensure effective implementation, teachers participate in seminars, workshops, webinars, and Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) to update in their disciplines and enrich student learning. The college also organizes such programs for both faculty and students. The outcomes are assessed through internal tests, class tests, surprise tests, unit tests, group discussions, assignments, projects, viva voce, interactions, and exam results. Add-on courses have in-house evaluations. Outcomes are thoroughly analyzed in classes and Parent-Teacher Meetings (PTMs), where they are explained to students for better understanding and future preparation. Some records of outcomes are maintained, preserved, and displayed on the college website to ensure transparency. By combining innovative evaluation methods with continuous progress tracking, Suri Vidyasagar College ensures the effective realization of Program and Course Outcomes, benefiting the students.
2.6.2 QIM	Attainment of POs and COs are evaluated. Explain with evidence in a maximum of 500 words At Suri Vidyasagar College, the attainment of POs and COs follows a structured cycle. Teachers explain these goals to students, implement them, and discuss the outcomes at the end of each semester. Mentor-mentee meetings address specific problems, and solutions are provided to enhance preparation for future semesters. The college employs various methods to evaluate POs and COs. Direct evaluation methods include internal tests, surprise tests, projects, assignments, book and film reviews, group discussions, quizzes, and seminar presentations. University-conducted end-semester exams ensure neutrality, as most core course scripts are evaluated by external teachers. Indirect evaluation methods involve classroom interactions, teacher feedback, and mentor feedback. Mentors, familiar with their mentees' academic, social, and economic backgrounds, ensure holistic evaluation. This method provides a nuanced understanding of student progress. The attainment of POs and COs is evaluated using an 80% direct method and a 20% indirect method. The college further tracks student progress after graduation, analyzing their higher studies and employment outcomes. These results are recorded, preserved, and displayed on the college website, ensuring transparency and continuous improvement.

Suri Vidyasagar College is providing quality education that fosters academic pursuit and social responsibility. The college website offers updated information on admission criteria, departmental details, rules, study materials, and extension services. Over the last five years, on an average of 1800 students, including many from SC, ST, OBC, and PwD categories, have been admitted annually. An academic calendar and syllabus distribution is shared with students, who are assigned mentors for academic guidance and counselling. Limited innovative teaching methods and ICT tools are applied. Approximately 20 MOUs have been signed with institutions for faculty exchange and specialized lectures. Internal assessments, including class tests, viva voce, seminars, and assignments, ensure transparent and efficient evaluation. Program and course outcomes are assessed through direct and indirect methodologies. The annual Arun Sen Memorial Prize ceremony recognizes academic and co-curricular excellence, motivating students to achieve better performance.

The NCC and NSS units regularly conduct social awareness programs for both students and the local community. Following the implementation of the NEP 2020 for undergraduate programs in 2023-24, the college has formed several committees to ensure smooth functioning, involving both teaching and non-teaching staff. Policy decisions are made through healthy discussions. The college’s future plans include introducing more undergraduate and postgraduate courses, adding skill-based add-on programs, maintaining a green campus with energy-efficient lighting, enhancing resources, promoting IT-based courses, increasing MoUs with other institutions, and supporting research activities.
6.2	Strategy Development and Deployment
6.2.1 QIM	The institutional perspective plan is effectively deployed and functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment,

	service rules, and procedures, etc The college prioritizes academic through a semi structured teaching-learning process guided by an academic calendar. Departments enhance practical knowledge through field studies and educational tours while organizing student seminars to build communication skills, confidence, and subject expertise. Co-curricular activities like essay writing, debates, and quizzes are conducted.. A robust evaluation process includes internal tests and end-semester exams conducted every six months per CBCS guidelines. Transparency is ensured by allowing students to review their answer scripts upon request. The college emphasizes human resource development, encouraging faculty and staff to grow through seminars, paper presentations, and refresher courses. Between 2018 and 2023, 64 OP/RC courses, 7 short-term courses were attended, and 10 teachers earned Ph.D. degrees. Appointments adhere to government regulations. The automated library, equipped with KOHA, provides over 61,000 books, journals, and e-resources. Facilities include ICT-enabled classrooms with smart boards and projectors, well-equipped science and computer labs, and 87 computers for academic and administrative use. Faculty members are involved in research, resulting in 135 published papers, 58 books and chapters, and ongoing Ph.D. work. Four faculty members supervise 17 Ph.D. scholars. The decentralized structure ensures effective management through the Governing Body, led by its President, and executed by the Principal. Departmental heads and the IQAC support quality teaching and administration, while sub-committees address specific institutional needs, fostering participatory governance.
6.3	Faculty Empowerment Strategies
6.3.1 QIM	The institution has performance appraisal system, effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff and avenues for career development/progression The college conducts performance appraisals of faculty and institutional practices through feedback from students, parents, teachers, and employers. Faculty members also engage in self-appraisal, particularly during Career Advancement Scheme evaluations. The institution cares the welfare of its teaching and non-teaching staff, implementing various initiatives to support their needs. Leave policies, including maternity and childcare leave, comply with university and government regulations. A Co-operative credit society offers financial assistance to staff, while provident fund and pension benefits are efficiently managed to ensure timely disbursement to retirees. Facilities such as desktops with internet connectivity, clean drinking water, and a canteen are provided, alongside recreational amenities like indoor games. An annual picnic fosters camaraderie among staff members. The college supports faculty career advancement by granting on-duty leave for participation in orientation programs, refresher courses, and seminars. Teachers are encouraged to present research papers and engage in academic conferences. Faculty pursuing Ph.D. research or guiding students receive institutional backing, with several teachers actively mentoring doctoral candidates. Dedicated departmental rooms facilitate research and academic activities, ensuring teachers have resources and space to advance their scholarly pursuits.
6.4	Financial Management and Resource Mobilization
6.4.1 QIM	Institution has strategies for mobilization and optimal utilization of resources and funds from various sources (government/ nongovernment organizations) and it conducts financial audits regularly (internal and external) The college secures limited funding through grants from UGC, the Department of Higher Education, the Government of West Bengal, and RUSA. Supplemented by fees from students, self-financing courses, and rent from college properties leased to a bank and post office are other sources of income.

Funds are utilized for developing new academic and infrastructural facilities while maintaining existing ones. The Planning, Development, Finance, General Purchase, Building, Laboratory Equipment Purchase, and Auction Committees oversee fund utilization, ensuring cost-effectiveness. All transactions are documented with vouchers and bills, processed by the accounts department, and authorized by the Bursar and Principal. Collections are banked, and expenditures are made via checks.

The college conducts audits to maintain financial accountability. External audits are carried out every two years by statutory auditors appointed by the Directorate of Public Instruction (DPI), with reports submitted annually to the DPI. External audits have been completed up to the financial year 2018-19. Internal audits, conducted by a Chartered Accountant firm, have been completed up to 2022-23 and are prepared for government review. The institution adheres to accounting principles and guidelines, with occasional internal audits ensuring proper utilization and justification of funds.

6.5 Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 QIM Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes. It reviews teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals and records the incremental improvement in various activities

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is facilitating the academic development of the college. It formulates strategies based on NAAC recommendations, monitors their implementation, and ensures efficiency through the publication of an Academic Calendar for UG and PG programs. The IQAC oversees the admission process and organizes orientation programs for new students to facilitate smooth integration. It maintains some records of academic activities, attendance, assessments, student progression, and mentoring. Teachers' participation in academic and professional activities, including research and curriculum development, is monitored. Over the last five years, IQAC introduced two add-on courses aimed at enhancing life skills for students and teachers and actively encouraged collaborative initiatives with HEIs, NGOs, and private companies, resulting in over 20 partnerships.

The IQAC promotes, in a limited way, research activities among faculty, gathers detailed data on admissions, results, projects, ICT usage, and organizes seminars, webinars, and workshops, with 13 events conducted, including 9 collaborations. Self-appraisal reports from faculty are collected annually to evaluate academic and co-curricular contributions, while structured feedback from stakeholders—students, parents, teachers, and employers—is analyzed for actionable insights. It supports community engagement through NSS and NCC outreach programs and facilitated career advancement for 36 teachers in three phases from 2018 to 2023.

Suri Vidyasagar College aligns its mission and vision with national higher education policies, emphasizing social reform. The Governing Body (GB) is the apex decision-making body, while the Principal oversees academic, administrative, and financial matters. Teaching and non-teaching staff support management through GB-formed subcommittees. Since 2006, the IQAC has driven quality assurance and enhancement.

Leadership and service to humanity are instilled in students through NCC, NSS, sports, cultural activities, career counselling, placement services, and welfare schemes. E-governance is implemented in administration, finance, admissions, scholarships, and examinations. Faculty pursue professional development through PhDs, orientation programs, seminars, and conferences. MOUs with other institutions facilitate faculty and student exchange.

Criterion7 - Institutional Values and Best Practices (Key Indicator and Qualitative Metrics(QIM) in Criterion7)
7.1	Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities
7.1.1 QIM	Institution has initiated the Gender Audit and measures for the promotion of gender equity during the last five years. Describe the gender equity & sensitization in curricular and co-curricular activities, facilities for women on campus etc., within 500 words Suri Vidyasagar College is committed to promoting gender equality and ensuring a safe and inclusive campus environment for girl students, with the practice of curricular and co-curricular activities. Developmental programmes are conducted, for overall growth. The college has installed CCTV cameras for constant vigilance and prevention of undesirable activities. Girls' common room, water coolers, toilets, and a sanitary napkin vending machine is provided. The institution has established a Grievance Redressal Cell and promotes awareness of women's rights, sexual harassment, and legal redressal. Awareness programs on Vishaka guidelines and the PoSH Act 2013 are conducted. Girl students have consistently outnumbered boys, exemplifying the vision of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, the champion of women's education in Bengal. The college undertakes activities to foster gender sensitization and equality. Raksha Bandhan is celebrated annually by the Bengali Department, NSS, and NCC units to promote harmony among students. NSS and NCC units also organize Thalassemia and AIDS awareness camps in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club, featuring expert speakers like Dr. Abir Kumar Pal. Special Karate training classes and self-defense courses for girl students are conducted under NSS leadership. Hygiene and cleanliness are promoted through "Swachhata Hi Seva" programs, and the institution maintain a ragging-free campus, ensuring a safe and respectful environment for all.
7.1.4 QIM	Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens (Within 500 words) Suri Vidyasagar College is dedicated to fostering an inclusive environment for education and character development, welcoming students from diverse social, linguistic, economic, and religious backgrounds. The institution emphasizes values of tolerance, inclusivity, and harmony, uniting different segments into a cohesive whole and instilling a sense of belonging. Significant occasions such as National Youth Day, Netaji Jayanti, Republic Day, Independence Day, and Gandhi Jayanti are celebrated with patriotic favour. Cultural days like International Mother Language Day, Rabindra Jayanti, Raksha Bandhan, and International Day for Drama promote unity and cultural awareness. NSS and NCC units, along with various departments, organize these events, alongside initiatives like International No Tobacco Day and Yoga Day. Students participate in Electoral Literacy Club activities and youth parliament programs, earning recognition in debate and youth parliament competitions. The college enhances accessibility through ramps, wheelchairs, while providing merit-cum-means scholarships and government financial aid schemes, such as Kanyashree, to support students from weaker sections. The college upholds discipline and decorum through well-publicized codes of conduct for all

	stakeholders, with specific hostel rules for residents. Initiatives include blood donation camps organized by NSS and NCC, during crises, and annual events like International Yoga Day and Teachers' Day. Cultural programs such as drama workshops and the Annual Social Function encourage creativity, while sports activities, including cricket, football, and kabaddi, emphasize character building. The Annual Sports Meet features diverse events for both boys and girls, with college teams regularly competing at district and university levels.
7.2	Best Practices
7.2.1 QIM	Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual Suri Vidyasagar College organizes an Annual Students' Seminar to encourage critical thinking, independent research, and public speaking among undergraduate students. During the Covid-19 lockdown, this event continued in an online format, offering hope and learning during challenging times. This initiative fosters curiosity, analytical thinking, and a research-oriented mindset while building confidence in public speaking and promoting healthy competition. Originating in the early 2000s within science departments, the seminar expanded to include Arts, Commerce, and General streams. Each department participate this event. Participants, guided by teachers, prepare and present topics using audio-visual aids, receiving certificates for their efforts. Held in the Aurobindo Bhaban seminar hall, this program has successfully alleviated stage fear and nurtured analytical skills, enabling students to excel in academics and other events like youth parliament sessions.
7.3	Institutional Distinctiveness
7.3.1 QIM	Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 1000 words Suri Vidyasagar College, located in Birbhum, West Bengal, traces its origins to 1942 when it was established as a branch of Vidyasagar College, Kolkata, amidst the chaos of World War II. The college became independent in 1948. The region, known as "Rarh" Bengal, was historically educationally backward, necessitating the creation of quality institutions for holistic development. The college's mission, centered on "Gyan" (wisdom), "Tyag" (sacrifice), and "Seva" (social service), aims to impart higher education, foster personality development, and promote socio-cultural awareness. The college, blessed with a large campus, boasts natural beauty and strives to nurture talent and human potential. Over the years, it has become a leading institution, producing exceptional alumni excelling in fields such as education, sports, and social service. Notable alumni include Pranab Mukherjee, the 13th President of India, Tulsi Giri, former Prime Minister of Nepal, and prominent educationists like Professor Ramaranjan Mukhopadhyay and Professor Debranj Mukhopadhyay. It has introduced an open-book examination system, a base-level test for incoming students, and a Drama Club offering a certificate course in Drama. Annual science exhibitions and active career counseling and placement cells, in collaboration with organizations like TCS and Mahindra, ensure students are prepared for future challenges. Suri Vidyasagar College strives to stay dynamic and relevant, combining past achievements with present-day realities to shape future leaders.

Suri Vidyasagar College reasonably prioritizes its mission to empower students as responsible citizens in India's democracy. The academic calendar includes observances of important figures' birth and death anniversaries and social events. The college focuses on raising awareness about gender and environmental issues, conducting gender audits and sensitization workshops. It ensures a ragging-free campus and provides self-defense training for female students. CCTV surveillance ensures campus security, and the library, with 62,235 books and 11 journals, is automated with KOHA software for online catalog access. Overall, the college aims to offer affordable education that promotes physical, moral, and intellectual development in a nurturing environment.

Section III: Overall Analysis based on Institutional strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities & Challenges (SWOC)

Overall Analysis

Strength:

The college is spread across 11 acres of land in the heart of town

Oldest college established during pre-partition days

Locational advantage due to steel and mining industry nearby

Government aided college

Sufficient constructed space available

Weaknesses:

Limited resources and funds

Old infrastructure

Limited teaching and nonteaching staff

Presence of other institutions nearby

Poor alumni network in spite of oldest college

Opportunities:

Possibility of starting new courses under self-financing

Research can be strengthened

Industry- academia linkage can be developed

Large area of land can allow to introduce many academic activities

Challenges:

Decreasing admissions over years

Adopting to new technology

Filling up of teachers posts

Generating funds for developments

Section IV: Recommendations for Quality Enhancement of the Institution

(Please limit to ten major ones and use telegraphic language) (It is not necessary to indicate all the ten bullets)

- Acoustic media Lab be re-established
- Local skill base courses should be introduced
- Sports facilities be further strengthened
- Computer labs with the latest software be established in departments
- Focus to be given on clean and green campus with robust plantation
- Botanical garden should be established on separate earmarked land
- Laboratories should be strengthened with latest equipment
- Wi Fi facilities should be extended to hostels
- Library needs to be stuffed with latest books particularly for FYUG
- New courses in the area of emerging technology be introduced
- Faculty should apply for extra mural research projects
- Alumni network should be strengthened
- Old furniture and fixtures be refurbished
- Old building should be face lifted and renovated.

20th TATASANKAR BANERJEE ENDOWMENT: A REPORT

The Department of History at Suri Vidyasagar College organized the 20th Tarasankar Banerjee Endowment Lecture on January 6, 2023, starting at 12 noon in the Seminar Hall, Aurobindo Bhavan. Prof. Asis Kumar Das from the Department of History, Rabindra Bharati University, was the distinguished speaker, presenting on "Liberation War of Bangladesh and the People of West Bengal." The event saw enthusiastic participation (total 157) from various departments, in addition to the History Department faculty.

The program was divided into two main segments: the inaugural and memorial prize distribution session, followed by the technical session. The inaugural session was chaired by Dr. Amiya Ghosh, Head of the History Department. Prof. Tapan Parichha, Principal of Suri Vidyasagar College, delivered the inaugural address, setting the stage for the event. Prof. Nibedita Chakravorty, gave a warm welcome address, creating an engaging atmosphere.

The seminar coordinator, Dr. P.S. Mazumder, ensured the event proceeded smoothly. The memorial prize distribution recognized and celebrated the academic achievements of outstanding students, adding a joyful element to the proceedings.

In the technical session, Prof. Asis Kumar Das delivered an insightful lecture on the Liberation War of Bangladesh and its impact on the people of West Bengal. His presentation was well-received and sparked meaningful discussions among the attendees, highlighting the historical and cultural connections between Bangladesh and West Bengal.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Asim Chaudhuri, who expressed gratitude to all participants and contributors for their roles in making the lecture a success. The 20th Tarasankar Banerjee Endowment Lecture not only honoured the memory of Tarasankar Banerjee but also provided a platform for rich academic discourse, enhancing the intellectual environment of the Dept. of History.

অতিথি পরিচয়

রবীন্দ্রভারতী বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের ইতিহাস বিভাগের অধ্যাপক ডাঃআশীষ কুমার দাসের পরিচিতি ও কর্মজগৎ বহুমুখী। ছাত্রদরদী এই মানুষটির পরিচিতি ছড়িয়ে পড়েছে দেশের গণ্ডির বাইরে। তার ইতিহাস অনুরাগী হিসেবে তা গবেষণার মূল বিষয় বাংলাদেশের মুক্তিযুদ্ধে ভারতের ভূমিকা হলেও এর আলোচনার বাইরে এমন কোনোও বিষয়ই থাকে না - যা মানুষের ব্যক্তি ও সমাজ জীবনকে প্রভাবিত করে। এই নিয়ে তিনি বক্তব্য রেখেছেন বিভিন্ন বিনোদনসভা থেকে শুরু করে রাজনৈতিক ও অরাজনৈতিক মঞ্চে সংবাদমাধ্যম এবং অনলাইন আলোচনায়।

তার রচিত ও সম্পাদিত বেশ কিছু গ্রন্থও প্রকাশিত হয়েছে। যার মধ্যে বাংলাদেশের মুক্তিযুদ্ধ ও ভারত, ইতিহাসের নানা দিক, বাংলাদেশের মুক্তিযুদ্ধ ফিরে দেখা, ভারত ছাড়া আন্দোলন ফিরে দেখা, Trends in Environmental History in India - এর নাম উল্লেখযোগ্য। এছাড়া ভারত ও বাংলাদেশের বিভিন্ন গবেষণা সংস্থায় ছড়িয়ে রয়েছে তার বহু উল্লেখযোগ্য প্রবন্ধ ও গবেষণা-নিবন্ধ।

সারস্বত চর্চার পাশাপাশি তিনি প্রাতিষ্ঠানিক পরিচালন ক্ষেত্রেও উল্লেখযোগ্য দক্ষতার নিদর্শন রেখে চলেছেন। রবীন্দ্রভারতী বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়ের প্রাক্তন এই বিভাগীয় প্রধান বর্তমানে ওই বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়েরই দূরশিক্ষা বিভাগের ডাইরেক্টর পদের ভারপ্রাপ্ত। এছাড়া তিনি নিজেই রবীন্দ্রভারতীর Centre for Bangladesh Studies-এর মত একটি গুরুত্বপূর্ণ গবেষণা সংস্থার প্রতিষ্ঠাতা এবং ডাইরেক্টর। জীবনের নানা সময় বহু গুরুত্বপূর্ণ পদের ভার সামলানো এই আদ্যপ্রান্ত বাঙালি মানুষটি বর্তমানে পশ্চিমবঙ্গ ইতিহাস সংসদের মতো একটি ধর্মনিরপেক্ষ ও বৈজ্ঞানিক ইতিহাসচর্চা প্রতিষ্ঠানের সম্পাদকের দায়িত্ব সামলাচ্ছেন।

REPORT ON THE ONE DAY “MAHENDRANATH DUTTA MEMORIAL LECTURE” ORGANIZED BY DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS, SURI VIDYASAGAR COLLEGE

A one day “Mahendranath Dutta Memorial Lecture” organized by Department of Mathematics, Suri Vidyasagar College, was held on 06.01.2024 from 1:30 p.m. onwards at Department of Mathematics, Suri Vidyasagar college (Room No. H-NR3). The resource person was Prof. Arijit Ghoshal, Professor, Department of Mathematics, The University of Burdwan. The numbers of attendees were about 61 including faculty members and students.

The Topic of lectures was – AN INTRODUCTION TO CLASSICAL MECHANICS

Duration of the Lecture- 1:30 p.m. to 03:30 p.m.

Prof. Shubhendu Ghosh, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Mathematics delivered the welcome address in which he emphasized the brief history on “Mahendranath Dutta Memorial Lecture”. He also introduced the resource person of the lecture. Keynote address was delivered by the Principal Dr. Tapan Kumar Parichha. The Principal presided over the lecture. Dr. Ramprosad Saha, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Suri Vidyasagar College anchors the whole programme. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Arijit Ghoshal, Professor, Department of Mathematics, The University of Burdwan. He laid the foundation of the topic “AN INTRODUCTION TO CLASSICAL MECHANICS” by defining the various terms in context, like; distance, time, and mass etc. He also describes (i) Law of inertia: A body remains at rest or in uniform motion unless acted upon by a force. (ii) Equation of motion: A body acted upon by a force moves in such a manner that the time rate of change of momentum equals the force. He talked about the basics of Newtonian Mechanics such as Newton’s Laws of Motion, Newtonian Kinematics, mechanics of a single particle, motion with a constant force, harmonic oscillator, charged particle in a magnetic field, momentum and angular momentum, Work, energy and potential forces, center of mass, reduced mass, one-dimensional conservative motions, systems with constraints and special co-ordinates, motion in a central field.

Interaction session between the participants and the resource person took place after the deliberation was over. The participants enthusiastically asked questions and the resource person answered with equal vigor. Finally the vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Sujoy Das, Assistant

Summary:

The Equal Opportunity Cell of Suri Vidyasagar College took a proactive step towards raising environmental awareness by organising a special lecture titled "Eco-Citizenship: Men's Responsibility towards Mother Earth" on the occasion of World Environment Day. The event was held online via Google Meet on June 5, 2024, at 6:00 PM, ensuring accessibility to a wider audience.

Dr. Santosh Kr. Pal, a distinguished Professor of Philosophy from the University of Burdwan, graced the occasion with his insightful presence as the keynote speaker. Dr. Pal began by emphasising the interconnectedness of humans and the environment, highlights the urgent need for a paradigm shift in our relationship with nature. He eloquently articulated the concept of "eco-citizenship", emphasises that environmental responsibility is not merely a duty but a fundamental right and responsibility of every individual.

Dr. Pal delved into various aspects of environmental consciousness, including:

- Sustainable living: He underscored the importance of adopting sustainable practices in our daily lives, such as reduces of waste, conservation of energy, and choosing eco-friendly products.
- Responsible consumption: Dr. Pal stressed the need for mindful consumption and the avoidance of excessive materialism, which often comes at the cost of environmental degradation.
- Active participation: He encouraged active participation in environmental conservation efforts, such as tree plantation, waste management initiatives, and advocacy for environmental protection policies.

Throughout the lecture, Dr. Pal engaged the audience with thought-provoking questions and compelling anecdotes. He encouraged critical thinking and active participation in environmental discourse. The interactive session fostered a lively exchange of ideas and perspectives among the participants.

The event concluded with a sense of renewed commitment and a shared resolve to embrace sustainable practices and contribute towards a healthier planet. The lecture served as a valuable platform to raise awareness about environmental issues and inspire a sense of responsibility towards Mother Earth. It was a resounding success to promote environmental consciousness among the students and faculty of Suri Vidyasagar College.

Seminar on “Relevance of Indian Constitutional Values in Today's World”

Organized by

Electoral Literacy Club, Suri Vidyasagar College

Collaboration with the Department of Political Science and IQAC,

Suri Vidyasagar College

Date: December 6, 2024

Venue: New Building, Suri Vidyasagar College, Suri, Birbhum

Resource Person: Prof. Sumana Das, Assistant Professor, Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya, Sainthia, Birbhum.

Electoral Literacy Club of Suri Vidyasagar College observes Constitution Day on 26th November every year. But this year the programme had to be deferred due to scheduled BU examination. So, in consultation with Principal sir, ELC decided that Constitution Day will be observed later and organized a Seminar about our Constitution. So, on 6th December, ELC organized a Seminar on “Relevance of Indian Constitutional Values in Today's World” and invited Prof. Sumana Das, Assistant Professor, Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya, Sainthia, Birbhum as a resource person and invited Prof. Subrata Kumar Gupta, Associate Professor (retired) of Political Science, Suri Vidyasagar College as an honorable chief Guest.

Summary of the Seminar:

- Our esteemed Principal, Dr. Tapan Kumar Parichha inaugurated the Seminar and made a memorable speech about our Constitution. He also explained the necessity of the Electoral Literacy Club that will promote the democratic values and participation in electoral processes among the students of our college.
- The esteemed Prof. Sumana Das began with the introductory speech to our Constitution and Preamble of our constitution. She also discussed the making of the Constitution and the contributions of key figures, like Dr. B. R. Ambedkar (Chief Architect of the Constitution), Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Dr. Rajendra Prasad and so on. Then she emphasized the importance of the constitutional values, rights, duties and its significance in Indian citizens as well as world perspective.
- Our chief Guest, Prof. Subrata Kumar Gupta recited the Indian Constitution's Preamble and elaborated on the role of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, as a Chief Architect of the Constitution.
- Dr. Sujoy Das, IQAC Coordinator, emphasized the importance of such Seminar in fostering awareness of constitutional values among students and citizens.
- Prof. Sabirul Islam, Head of the Department of Political Science gave the vote of thanks. The programme concluded with the National Anthem.
- Mr. Susanta Raha Sr. Librarian conducted the whole programme.

Budget of the Seminar: Rs. 2800/- (approx.)

Fund: College Fund
